

Matthew 5:21-37

Sixth Sunday of Epiphany, Year A

READER 1:

Hear the teachings of Jesus
as recorded by Matthew.

We are reading from chapter 5.

READER 2:

‘You have heard that it was said
to those of ancient times,
“You shall not murder.”

And, “Whoever murders
shall be liable to judgement.”

But I say to you
that if you are angry with a brother or sister,
you will be liable to judgement.
And if you insult a brother or sister,
you will be liable to the council.

And if you say, “You fool”,

you will be liable to the hell of fire.

So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister
has something against you,
leave your gift there before the altar,
and go!

First be reconciled to your brother or sister,
and then come and offer your gift.

Come to terms quickly with your accuser
while you are on the way to court with him,
or your accuser may hand you over to the judge,
and the judge to the guard,
and you will be thrown into prison.

Truly I tell you,
you will never get out
until you have paid the last penny.

READER 1:

‘You have heard that it was said,
“You shall not commit adultery.”

But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

If your right eye causes you to sin,
tear it out
and throw it away.

It is better for you to lose
one of your members,
than for your whole body
to be thrown into hell.

And if your right hand causes you to sin,
cut it off,

and throw it away.

It is better for you to lose

one of your members
than for your whole body to go into hell.

READER 2:

‘It was also said,
“Whoever divorces his wife,
let him give her a certificate of divorce.”

But I say to you
that anyone who divorces his wife,
except on the ground of unchastity,
causes her to commit adultery.
And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

READER 1:

‘Again, you have heard
that it was said
to those of ancient times,
“You shall not swear falsely,
but carry out the vows
you have made to the Lord.”
But I say to you,
Do not swear at all,
either by heaven,
for it is the throne of God,
or by the earth,
for it is his footstool,
or by Jerusalem,
for it is the city of the great King.
And do not swear by your head,

for you cannot make one hair white or black.
Let your word be “Yes, Yes,” or “No, No”.
Anything more than this,
comes from the evil one.

READER 2:

Here ends the reading.
May God bless our hearing
with understanding.
