

Isaiah 55:10-13 NRSV

(slightly altered for inclusive language)

Today's reading comes from the Old Testament, the Hebrew scriptures. I am reading from the prophet Isaiah, chapter 55, beginning with verse 10.

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth,
making it bring forth and sprout,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose,
and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

For you shall go out in joy,
and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song,
and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress;
instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle;
and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial,
for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Here ends the reading.

May our hearing lead to understanding.
